Statement from Chief Justice Stuart Rabner

“I am very pleased to announce that Judge Glenn A. Grant will continue to serve as Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts. Judge Grant has been a remarkable leader of the Judiciary for more than a decade. Among many other areas of achievement, his effectiveness has been especially noteworthy of late in helping guide the courts through the ongoing pandemic and helping respond in a meaningful way to racial justice issues that affect the justice system.

I am grateful to Senate President Sweeney, Speaker Coughlin, and Assemblyman Mukerji for sponsoring legislation, signed by Gov. Murphy this afternoon, that will enable Judge Grant, and others in the future, to continue to serve the public beyond age 70 as the administrative director. I am delighted to extend Judge Grant’s appointment with appreciation for his superb leadership.”
